A CELEBRATION OF RESILIENCY

- ▶ We believe now, more than ever, is a time to celebrate our small business heroes. This year, entrepreneurs have found themselves suffering immediate and far-reaching impacts as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Throughout it all, we have been inspired by the resiliency and adaptability they have shown to not only survive, but thrive. In that same spirit, Small Business BC's 18th Annual SBBC Awards is adapting to our current reality, delivering a unique and unprecedented virtual awards program that celebrates their achievements and showcases the many inspiring stories happening around our province. While things may look a little different this year, we are determined to deliver our usual high profile, prestigious experience where everyone can participate and share in each other's successes, safely.
